

About Us

Ownership/Management

Our management team is comprised of a unique blend of 'hands on' professionals with the education and experience required to provide the best forest management service available in the Pacific Northwest.

Our core forest management team has field experience in all aspects of timberland management, with an emphasis on timber appraisal, harvest management, and log marketing. Our professional accounting team has a combined experience of over 100 years in production and financial accounting.

Green Crow founders, from left to right:Randy Johnson, General Manager

David Crow (deceased)

Gretchen Crow, Senior Partner

John David Crow, Chairman